DATA PROTECTION CONSENT FORM

The Egham Chamber of Commerce (ECC) Data Protection Policy is based on the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) which sets out the responsibilities of organisations for the protection and use of personal data. Consent for holding and using that data is required from every member of the organisation.

The ECC uses the personal data it holds to enable it to communicate with its members to:

- keep them up to date with news relevant to the local business community, and
- inform them about upcoming local events

The ECC never has and never will transfer personal data to any other organisation whether for remuneration or otherwise.

All members have the right to ask for a copy of their personal data held by the ECC, and to have any inaccuracies rectified. Members also have the right to have their personal data erased upon request with the exception of data held to enable the collection of membership subscriptions.

The ECC holds the following personal data:

- Name
- Business address
- Business telephone and fax number
